Mediator
Louisiana

Charest "Chip" Thibaut, III

Born and raised in Baton Rouge, Chip obtained his undergraduate B.A. degree and Juris Doctorate law degree from Louisiana State University--all within five years, making him one of the youngest graduates of the LSU Law School. Upon graduating from LSU Law School in 1972, Chip stepped into a very busy corporate/insurance defense practice and was assistant general counsel for one of the largest insurance companies at the time in North America. Chip has been certified by the National Board of Trial Advocacy in both Civil Trial Advocacy and in Civil Pretrial Practice Advocacy, and by the American Board of Professional Liability Attorneys in Medical Malpractice Law. Chip is admitted to practice in all Louisiana State and Federal Courts, Court of Federal Claims and the United States Supreme Court, and is qualified as a Mediator in Louisiana (La. R.S. 9:4106) and Texas (T.C.P. Section 154.052).
